There are no Nauru or Samoa supplements for 2017.

Many of our customers have Standing Orders for these pages and will receive them with the next batch of new issues. But if you are not covered by a Standing Order, you are most welcome to place orders. Extra postage will be added due to the non-standard size of the pages.

INTERRUPTION TO PNG ISSUES
We have acted as Selling Agents for philatelic products from Papua New Guinea for many years. It has not always been an easy job, primarily because of the rather erratic arrival of the issues. The release date of each issue, rarely bears any resemblance to the dispatch date from Port Moresby. Months go by without any deliveries, followed by large batches, sometimes of Mint only. The CTO’s and First Day Covers then follow some considerable time later.

We have not publicised these events in our newsletter, as we did not wish to exacerbate the chaotic impression in the marketplace.

Our relationship with the people managing the Bureau is quite good. We believe they are doing a good job under difficult circumstances.

The year 2018 saw more delays than ever. By the end of the year, we still had not received some stamps from June.

Early this year we came to an agreement with the Bureau to expedite the remainder of the 2018 issues. Some of which were many months overdue. It involved co-ordinated dispatch and payment schemes.

We received an email stating the details of the last batch together with a tracking number for the parcel. On the strength of that, we prepared all our paperwork for the distribution of the issues.

Two weeks after that, we got suspicious that the Tracking of the parcel showed no progress. We were finally told that PNG Post management had intercepted the parcel because they were not happy with the arrangement.

This is where we are today. Naturally we are exploring all avenues to resolve this situation.

TUVALU
Again we have a large number of Tuvalu issues. You will notice that these issues are 2017 and 2018. We have now completed issues for those 2 years. They cover a variety of topics. I suggest you order early, as the stock levels are a bit of a lottery. I am confident we can obtain back orders, but they always take time.

LATE NEWS
A whole lot of Australian Issues arrived after we finished Page 2. Please look for them out of sequence on Page 3.

Next Warbler: SEPTEMBER 2018
Cheerio from Gerry, Les & Lizzie
